

WORLD NAKED BIKE RIDE UK

Friday 8 June 2007

Come and join York's second World Naked Bike Ride!

Assemble from 5 pm in Memorial Gardens (nr Station).
Depart 6 pm from adjacent Esplanade car-park.

What's it all about?

Join a growing global protest against oil dependency and the destructive effects of car culture. By cycling naked we hope to show the vulnerability of cyclists on city streets. Celebrate your bike and celebrate your body as you enjoy the freedom of cycling through York's medieval streets with less clothing than usual!

Do I have to be nude?

No, you ride As Bare As You Dare! Many do ride nude, but if you're shy, shorts, swimwear, crop tops, bodypaint, sunglasses or masks are all fine. No one will pressure you to take off more than you want to. A perfect body is not required either... we come in all shapes and sizes.

Will I be arrested for nudity?

Highly unlikely. Nudity in itself is not illegal in England. London, Brighton and York police all allowed rides in 2006. Last year there were 60 riders on York's first ever ride. This year we aim to double that.

What else?

Bring bells, whistles, slogans and a bag or pannier for your clothes. Skaters welcome too!

Stop indecent exposure to vehicle emissions!
